important information

The past performance of an investment is not a guide to future investment performance.

What you get back will depend on investment performance and is therefore not guaranteed. The value of investments and any income from them can fall as well as rise.

You should appreciate that there are inherent risks in all types of investment. There can be no guarantee that the objectives of the Fund will be achieved.

Where the Fund invests in securities designated in a different currency to the Fund, the value of the Fund may rise and fall purely as a result of exchange rate fluctuations.

Bonds carry a risk of default of either income payments or capital repayments or both. The Fund may invest partly in high-yielding corporate bonds, which are generally regarded as higher risk investments.

The solvency of the companies that issue these bonds cannot be guaranteed, and any difficulty (such as default on payment) may adversely affect the Fund's performance.

Where the running or distribution yield (an estimate of the income return) of a bond fund is greater than the redemption yield (the total return if all the bonds in a fund were held to maturity) this may signify an erosion of capital.

If you sell your shares within the first six months following investment you may incur an Exit Charge. This means you are likely to get back less than you originally invested.

You should be aware that the use by a fund of derivatives for the purpose of efficient portfolio management exposes the Fund to the risk that the provider of the derivative becomes insolvent while it owes money to the Fund.

The Historic Yield reflects distributions declared over the past twelve months as a percentage of the mid-market unit price, as at the date shown. It does not include any preliminary charge and investors may be subject to tax on their distribution.

* Quartile - A statistical term which, in this context, describes the performance of an investment fund relative to other investment funds in a group or sector. Each quartile contains 25% of the funds based upon the performance of each fund in comparison to other funds in the group or sector. The funds are ordered by performance with the top performing 25% of funds making up the 1st quartile and the worst performing 25% of funds making up the 4th quartile.
